COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

The Sunrise Fire-Rescue Department is proud to recognize and honor Jean Louis Cadet and Karyn Cadet for their act of heroism and bravery.

On June 11, 2009 Karyn Cadet was notified by a 5 year old neighbor that her brother, also a 5 year old, fell in the family pool. Karyn called 911 and summoned her 17 year old brother Jean Louis. Jean Louis ran across the street, jumped in the deep end of the pool and pulled the victim from the pool.

Jean Louis and Karyn Cadet represent the true meaning of Good Samaritan. Without regard for their safety and well being, they rushed to the aid of a neighbor in peril, in an attempt to rescue him from the pool. The victim was ultimately discharged and is now home from the hospital.

It is with great pride and respect that we honor and commend Jean Louis and Karyn Cadet for their tremendous act of bravery and for their humanitarianism.
